Here we are from near and far, imagine it! We're Juniors and really feel that living on the Hill is like "Home Sweet Home."

One of the many things we Juniors look forward to is our practice teaching for six weeks. This is our first year out, and we have so much to learn.

We also plan for the Senior Ball this year. Watch out, Seniors, we're going to make it really special, just for you!

At our winter carnival, our candidates for king and queen were Bucky Isham and Jean Ladd.

Hip hip hurrah for us Juniors! We love good old LTC and what it stands for.

Our first impression of LTC was tests and MORE tests. Of course, this didn't last too long before we were faced with putting on a class activity. This turned out to be a country-style dance which was a great success, as was proven by the large crowd attending.

Candidates for winter carnival king and queen were elected. They were Joy Woodworth and Dick Wry.

Much enjoyment has been found by the members while working together for the success of the class activities.

The Lyndon Teachers College Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Leavitt plans two concerts each year. The Christmas concert is given as part of the college Christmas activities. Christmas 1953 featured a program of solos and choruses from Handel's "Messiah," with two pianos as accompaniment.

The Spring concert accents the lighter side of music. In 1953, an originally compiled musical show entitled "International Holiday" was presented at the college and for the legislators in Montpelier. This program was embellished with costumes and colored spotlights. Dances and pantomime were included.

A new musical production, using hit tunes from the musical shows of the past half century, is being planned for the Spring concert of 1954.

ADVISOR—Mr. Noll and Mr. Schmid

The W. A. A. had an active year planning and carrying out many activities for the girls. Mr. Schmid was elected to coach the cheerleaders. Awards in the form of W. A. A. patches and pins for girls participating in sports were chosen.

Old man winter curbed the L. T. C. winter carnival by leaving us with little snow. The high light of the carnival was the faculty where king Bucky Isham and queen Beverly Welch reigned over the festivities. The campaigns provided much enjoyment and competition between classes.

Basketball and Volleyball teams coached by Mr. Schmid were organized and several sports days and other games were arranged.

Other activities included a ping pong tournament, dance, intramural sports, softball, and soccer.

Dramatic Club

The L. T. C. Dramatic Club was formed for the purpose of creating an interest in dramatic activities on campus. As a group this club has made a name for itself in surrounding schools and towns.

Activities for the past year have included a one-act play, "Grandma Pulls the Strings," which was used as the Dramatic Club's contribution to the general assemblies.

The major project of the year was the production of "Over 21," a famous Broadway 3-act play. This play was presented to the entire school as well as to the public, who look forward to coming to L. T. C. plays each spring.

The dramatics group has certainly had a very pleasant year with many visits to Mrs. Hoffman's house making the evening meetings well worth while for business and pleasure. Meetings were planned to include refreshments and entertainment which always lend an attraction to members. We the members of the Dramatics Club consider this a very good year and are looking forward with eager anticipation to the coming one.

Justin Smith Morrill Chapter

A formal installation of officers was held on December 16, presenting the following slate of officers for the year:

PRESIDENT—Eileen Lovering

VICE PRESIDENT—Barbara Utton

SECRETARY—Victorine Stuart

TREASURER—June Wilmot

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN—Barbarajane Reed

ADVISOR—Miss Bussell

Tentative projects for the year included a regional convention and publishing of a statewide newsletter compiling the activities of the state clubs and Chapters for circulation.

The monthly programs presented were interesting and informative to the group. A mock interview between a superintendent and a prospective candidate for a teaching position and the showing of a NEA film "Skippy and the 3 Rs" were examples of two very interesting programs.

From our Chapter, Vice President Barbara Utton is also state secretary of the F. T. A.

Lyn-News

The college newspaper, Lyn-News, was established in September, 1953. The name was chosen by the members of the staff and accepted by the student body. In the course of a few months the Lyn-News grew from an unorganized and inferior newspaper to become the well organized and highly popular campus newspaper. Through the guidance of more experienced leaders and advisors and through the increased cooperation of the student body in the past few months; the newspaper has proved itself to be a worthwhile and appreciated student activity.

The Lyn-News consists of such popular articles as the Inquiring Reporter, This and That, and Student of the Week, other articles include sports write-ups, news items, editorials, and announcements. Illustrated covers and cartoons add much to the popularity of the paper.

The Lyn-News has great hopes that the future will bring a printed edition which will add still more to the effectiveness of this publication.

ADVISOR—Mr. Kenneth Hoffman

The Student Christian Association is a nondenominational organization for the purpose of enriching the spiritual lives of the students here at college.

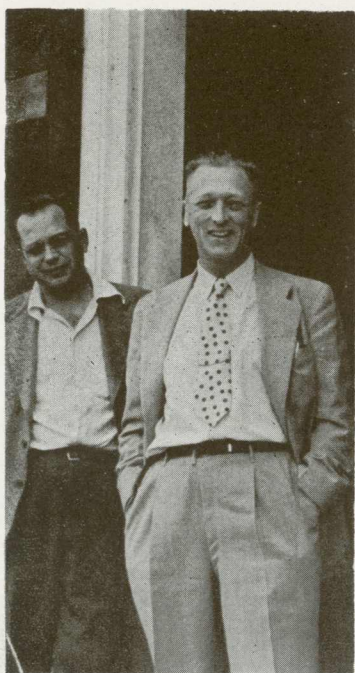

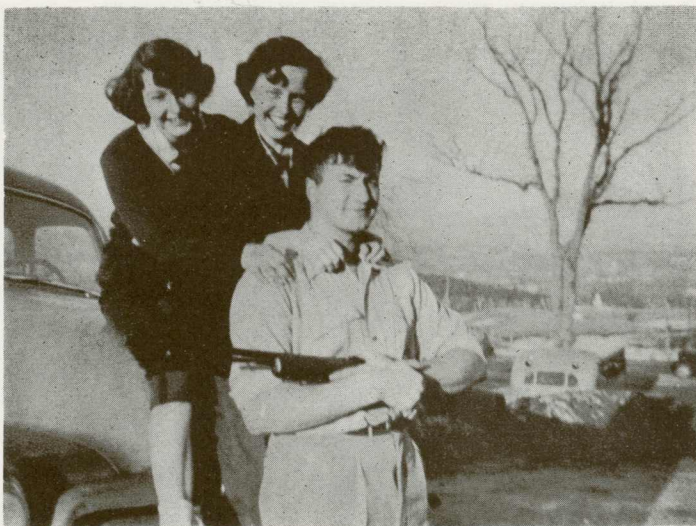

This year the SCA has sponsored many activities. Early in the school year, the SCA held a fun night under the leadership of Doris Rikert. On the 4th, 5th and 6th of December, Mr. Hoffman, Beverly Rocheleau, and Victorine Stuart attended the Life of Church Conference held at Harvard University with 68 New England Colleges represented.

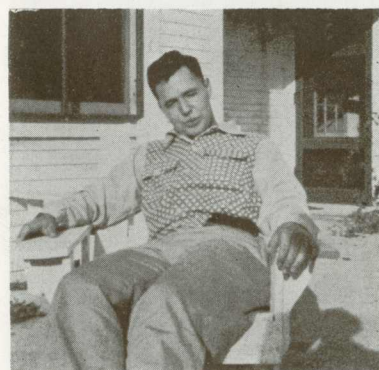

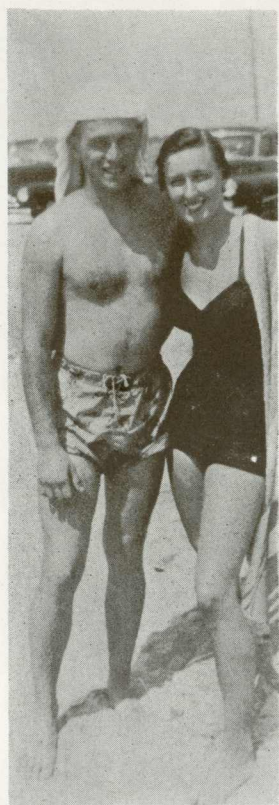

Christmas time came with a wealth of activities. The members collected clothes for some needy families. To open the Christmas season with the right spirit, the SCA invited the students to accompany them Christmas caroling through Lyndon Center. Besides these special activities, other features of our program were Bible Study, discussion groups, and speakers.

ALMA MATER

Above a green and pleasant valley
Beneath an azure colored sky,
Fair Lyndon College bids us rally
To sing her praises high.

When the winter stars are shining
Beyond the mountains highest rim,
Our song of friendship ever binding
Shall rise thy fame to win.

And though the future brings its sorrow
Or though the future brings us grace,
Thy memory fair beyond tomorrow
Time never shall efface.

Lyndon! Alma Mater!
Hail to thee forever!
From every loyal son and daughter,
Lyndon! Our own!
